LA FOLLETTE IS IN RACE TO STAY

Unless His Successor Binds
Himself to Progressive Principles

LA FOLLETTE'S ATTACK ON PRESS WAS BLUNDER

So Say His Friends in Public Statement—His Health is Also Big Factor

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Senator R. M. La Follette has issued the following statement as the only terms under which he will accept Theodore Roosevelt as the progressive Republican candidate:

"I have been the standard bearer of principles, not individuals, and no possible change in circumstances can change the great issues for which I fought and will continue to fight. I will enlist in the ranks with no man unless he adopts publicly in binding terms the true principles of progressive government by the people."

From La Follette headquarters has been issued the following statement: "Senator La Follette was drafted as a progressive leader when his leadership apparently meant certain defeat. Col. Roosevelt had then positively eliminated himself from the fight. His followers pledged themselves to La Follette. La Follette claims that he had every assurance from Col. Roosevelt that the Colonel would not be a candidate. As the reasons for President Taft's retirement grew, the progressive strength developed. Then the Roosevelt boom was launched. The crisis was reached when many who had pledged themselves to La Follette announced their discovery that La Follette 'couldn't win.' The final break came when La Follette, with his physical condition shattered, committed what even his most loyal friends considered a blunder by attacking without discrimination the press of the nation."

MEANS UNITED PROGRESSIVES
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Amos Pinchot, progressive leader and brother of Gifford Pinchot, comments as follows on the La Follette situation: "La Follette's withdrawal would mean that the progressives realize that owing to La Follette's health, and the demand for Roosevelt, La Follette followers will be free to get behind Roosevelt, and the same old fight with another Republican leader will be continued. Many believe that Roosevelt is not so far advanced along progressive lines as La Follette but it is clear they agree on a majority of the progressive principles and fundamentals. It seems clear that La Follette's withdrawal only means a uniting of the progressives, thus insuring the nomination of a progressive candidate."

Roosevelt is "Mum"
NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Despite suggestions by Ohio, New Jersey, Illinois and Nebraska progressives that he should define his position because of La Follette's development, Colonel Roosevelt has continued silent. He has manifested much interest in the situation but has refused to comment on it. Roosevelt has moved from the little Outlook offices to the big reception room in order to accommodate the increasing number of politicians calling on him daily.

CHARGE SILVAS WITH HIGHWAY ROBBERY

Sheriff and Deputy Squires
Land Man Wanted in Los Angeles for Felony

LONG NIGHT RIDE BROUGHT RESULTS

Man Who Was in Cervantes
Row is Taken to Face a Serious Charge

A long night ride by automobile last night brought the capture of Joe Silvas, charged with highway robbery.

The officers engaged in the ride were Sheriff Rudbeck and Deputy Squires of this county and Deputy Sepulveda of Los Angeles county. Silvas was arrested at his home at San Luis Rey, and at 1:30 o'clock last night was placed in the county jail here. This morning Sepulveda took him to Los Angeles.

The charge against Silvas is that at the point of a gun he held up two men and robbed them of two watches and $40 in money. This occurred about a month ago.

Silvas came into police court notice here about that time as the result of a row over a Mexican woman. Mrs. F. C. Wilbacher. Silvas and Mike Cervantes got into a fracas and Silvas' hand was cut. Cervantes attempted to break into several houses in a search for the woman, vowing he would kill her. He is now serving a term of ninety days in jail here.

Soon after Cervantes was sentenced, Silvas and the woman moved to San Luis Rey, and occupied a house in which the officers last night found Silvas.

Yesterday evening Sepulveda came here hunting for Silvas. The sheriff and his deputy soon found out where Silvas was located, and the three men immediately set out for San Luis Rey.

STREET NAMING A SOURCE OF COMMENT

Committee Finds Too Many Names, Asked for Specific Recommendations

CITY TO COLLECT REALTY LICENSES

Admit it Will be Hard to Get Money From the Curb-stone Brokers

Streets that have too many names were under discussion for a time at the meeting of the City Trustees last night. Recently President E. J. of the City Trustees appointed a committee of women to recommend changes in names of streets where changes are needed.

Dr. Willela Waffle, as chairman of the committee consisting of herself, Mrs. R. J. Blee and Mrs. G. J. Mosbaugh, made a report for the committee, appointed to recommend changes of names of streets.

The first street spoken of was that street known from First to Fourth as Grant, from Fourth to Sixth as Lacy and from Sixth to Washington as F. The committee favored F for the whole street, as lettered streets are easily found.

Other streets mentioned as in reality one street, yet with two names to each street, are: Tenth and Orchard; Shelton and Nakomis; Fruit and Depot.

In general Dr. Waffle stated she thought it well to have the streets on East Fourth running across the street from the lettered streets in Santa Ana East tract bear the letters, for then strangers could more easily locate streets. The committee thought that Bush and Cypress should bear one name, and thought it ought to be left to the residents of the streets. Owing to decided jogs, it would not be convenient to attempt to make some of the streets south of First bear the same name of some street north of First. For instance, Halladay does not nearly conform to any street to the north of First. Neither does Orange avenue, and moreover residents of that street do not want its name changed. Dr. Waffle stated that Mrs. Blee, one of the committee, lives on that street, and she does not want the name changed.

After the report was read, Trustee Alderman called attention to the fact that the committee had not been specific in its recommendation as to what names ought to be used, except in the case of the triple-named street, F. Lacy-Grant, which the committee recommended should be F. He thought that in the case of Tenth and Orchard the committee should recommend that one or the other or some new name be used for the entire street.

By stated that it was the desire of the board that the committee shoulder the responsibility of re-naming and straightening out the various street names, wherever needed.

Dr. Waffle said she had not so understood the wishes of the board, and the committee would work the matter out more carefully and specifically. The report was returned to her by the city clerk, and the committee was thanked for the work so far done.

Citizen Protests
A citizen protested against the system followed by the street department in dragging all debris and soft earth to the middle of the street and leaving it there. It was stated that the ridges thus formed are a menace.

Wants Lights
John Beatty, representing residents in the vicinity of French street park, asked that lights be placed in that park, as the park is now poorly lighted. He said the conduct of some people who visit the park at night, sometimes as late as 2 and 3 o'clock, is not very creditable. The best way to improve conditions is to put a large light in the center on a tall pole, for then the people would seek other quarters.

The trustees agreed to take the matter up in the readjustment of all city lights.

F. C. Spencer, attorney, of Anaheim, representing Cassau, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Riverine, stated that some of the property went delinquent five years ago. Back taxes and cost come to about $220. He requested that the board settle the matter by accepting the real taxes without the penalties, which have run up at the rate of fifty cents per lot every year. Spencer said the proposal is legal. The city has sold the property every year. He said it to have sold it but once.

The matter was referred to the city attorney for an opinion.

One Or the Other
McPhee spoke in regard to lights on South Birch street. He said property owners had agreed to keep poles off the street, and would put up or nautical poles at the corners. At the Walnut corner a small gas pipe has been put up with the wire running in it. This wire carries 5000

ADVISORY COMMITTEEMEN MAKE STRONG APPEAL FOR HARMONY AND PROGRESS

It is with a feeling of deep regret that many of our good citizens have followed the polytechnic high school situation and view the position it has reached at this time. There has been so much said on the subject that it seems useless to say more, yet we cannot fail to hope that there may be something done in the near future that will tend to smooth matters over so that the progressive and much needed step that has been taken in favor of the polytechnic high will not count for naught, or rebound to our own disadvantage and future regret.

Friends and neighbors, it seems to us that our opportunity for building for a future greater and better Santa Ana is at hand, and the majority of the people have said by their votes, "Let's do something at this time that will bring Santa Ana more prominently before the eyes of the world, and at the same time erect a lasting monument for our present school children and posterity that will be a credit to those who have given and are willing to give of their own efforts and money for this end."

It is often said that Los Angeles, Pasadena, Redlands and Long Beach all "knock Santa Ana," and San Diego literally "eats us up." How can we expect to inspire confidence and harmony in our neighboring cities if we do not possess these two requisites within our own borders?

It is a pity and a shame that any city so beautifully situated as Santa Ana should have any citizen, an old one or a young one, that would deliberately do anything that would injure our city's name and future welfare, to say nothing about the injustice to our children and school privileges.

We can say without fear of successful contradiction that there is no city between San Francisco and San Diego that has so many natural, glorious environments as we have here. Situated as we are between the mountains and the ocean, with a climate scarcely equaled anywhere on earth, great fertility of soil, and plenty of water, beautiful homes, diversified products, good roads, sugar factory, an important railroad center with good railroad facilities, and situated on the main Camino Real, with good churches, fair schools, and a golden opportunity for better ones right at our hand, yet some few who would rather ruin than see others rule are willing to sacrifice untold advantages rather than give in just once.

Within the next three years there will be an influx of strangers and homeseekers in Southern California that any portion of the world will ever see, and if we cannot hold out proper inducements, we of course, cannot expect to get our share of the most desirable homeseekers and thereby will lose the very thing that we have been working for for years, namely, increasing our population with desirable people who are attracted by reason of the environments above mentioned.

Almost everyone has troubles of his own without coming into a community that periodically indulges in factional disagreements and rule or ruin tactics.

We, as members of the advisory board, had our personal preferences for sites and had good reasons as we thought for making our first choice, yet when we found that they were impossible or impracticable, we were willing to give our approval to what we considered the next best site, and are ready to work for it and harmony, in order to get our much needed school.

It is needless to say anything at this time in regard to the advantages or disadvantages of the site selected.

RIVERSIDE-ORANGE COUNTY WATER RIGHTS AGREEMENTS

At the time the compromise agreement was reached between the Riverside Water Company and the S. A. V. I. and A. U. W. companies of this county, by which the suits of our companies against the Riverside company were dismissed it was claimed by some people that the Orange County companies got the worst of it.

Now comes the Riverside City Council with an investigation of that compromise and an intimation that Riverside was muled. In an editorial in the Riverside Press of last Saturday, and in a communication from Francis Cuttle, president of the Riverside Water Company, in the same paper on the same date, we find interesting references to the aforesaid compromise.

In the Press editorial we find this: "The Riverside Water Company owes over $600,000 that will be due in a few months; if the bonds are not refunded and paid off when due, the bondholders will apply for a receiver and one would be named without doubt who was satisfactory to them. It has been suggested that this receiver would be able to cancel the agreement made with the Orange County companies and that he would be ready to make better terms for the sale of the water company's plant to the city than the present offer of the company. Both of these statements, however, are mere assumptions. It is a question whether a receiver would have any legal right to cancel the stipulation referred to or whether it would be a good thing for Riverside to have it cancelled. Authorities differ on both those points and the whole proposition is surrounded with complications and uncertainties."

Mr. Cuttle's communication purports to point out some of the errors in the conclusion reached by the committee of the council appointed to investigate among other things the Riverside Water company and the Santa Ana Valley companies. Mr. Cuttle says:

"The report states, referring to Judge Conrey's decision, that 'it is likely to be upheld.' It would be interesting to know where these gentlemen got the information that the supreme court of California would uphold Judge Conrey's decision. Assuming that it will be upheld, they then draw the conclusion that the Riverside Water Company may be deprived of some of the water it has the right to take under the compromise referred to. The compromise states specifically in several places that the waters referred to in the agreement are the surface and sub-surface waters of the Santa Ana river and its tributaries, and that the Riverside Water Company has the right to take certain amounts of water from these sources; 3080 inches being the minimum (although the committee states it is 2910 inches), for the months of June, July, August and September and 3300 inches average for the remaining months of the year, and no limit on the amount to be taken when there is gravity water."

"Referring to the recent decision Judge Conrey which two members of the committee so readily interpret to be damaging to the interests of the Riverside Water Company, we find these words: 'The owners of land containing percolating water which is tending toward a river or its tributaries, where the water has not yet attached itself to the surface or sub-flow of the stream, but is merely within the valley of the river and a part of its general sources of supply, are entitled to use water upon other lands which are non-riparian, provided such non-riparian lands are within the watershed of the river.'

"That being the case, what is to prevent the Riverside Water Company (should it ever desire to do so) from pumping percolating water from its lands bordering the Santa Ana river and its tributaries and using the water on non-riparian lands, as Judge Conrey says they may. Certainly nothing in the Santa Ana compromise could prevent such action by the Riverside Water Company, as that compromise is binding on the company as to the surface and sub-surface waters of the Santa Ana river only.

"In conclusion the committee says: 'There is no provision for annulment under any conditions. We think the city as a stockholder can and should, by proper proceedings, have reviewed the action of the board of directors of the Riverside Water Company in making this stipulation and decree.' 'From which it may be inferred that this committee thinks that such a compromise agreement as the one referred to should be subject to annulment should any individual stockholder desire it. There is now pending a compromise agreement between the Riverside Water Company and the Bear Valley Company and I suggest now that if a single stockholder or a minority of stockholders has the power to review actions of the board of directors representing a majority of the stockholders, it would be much better for such stockholders or minority of stockholders to state what the terms of such compromise will be and thereby avoid the necessity of 'reviewing' the action of the board of directors, representing a majority of the stockholders. In other words, let us have the tail wag the dog."

"It is not possible that this hasty report of the committee of councilmen is designed rather to affect the special meeting of the stockholders of the Riverside Water Company called for February 6th to authorize the refunding of its bonded indebtedness, than to safeguard the interests of the city of Riverside as an owner of 28 shares of the capital stock of the Riverside Water Company."

TWO CANDIDATES REACH THE 75,000 VOTE MARK

Mrs. N. E. Todd and Mrs. Sam Preble are the First Contestants to Enter Roll of Honor.

The voting list of the Register's Popular Ladies Voting Contest is increasing daily, but not at such a great speed as to make it in the least difficult for energetic young women to enter the race today and have their names at the top of the list within twenty-four hours. There are three very good reasons for making this assertion. The first is: that you have given this contest considerable thought and have studied it from every line of opposition and will start out absolutely sure of your ground. The second is: that you have not called on one of your friends for a subscription while others have perhaps called on dozens; and the third reason is: that only eight one-year new subscriptions are required to put you right up with the leader. Thus it is plain to see that while the contest has entered into its second week yet it can hardly be said to be under way. If you enter the contest today you can be counted on as being a hustler and that you have faith in your ability to pull up with the leaders on pretty short notice and that you will stay with it until the last ballot is polled. These are requirements that a candidate must essentially have to be a winner. Just look down the list of candidates. Consider every name carefully. Is there one of them who has any more grit and determination than you have?

Your chances for that great big, powerful and easy-running E. M. F. Touring Car are as good now as the day the contest was launched, and you certainly would be letting something go that you could have for a mere six weeks' effort.

Is it worth the effort? Is the E-M-F. Touring Car, valued at $1150.00 a fair remuneration? Of course, it only amounts to a little over two hundred and seventy-five dollars a week, but how soon do you expect to get an offer of two hundred and seventy-five dollars a week again? Perhaps years.

Nothing like it in the history of contests in Orange County has ever been offered before, and it is pretty safe to say that it will be a good many more years before it is ever offered again.

It takes absolutely no experience to get subscriptions to the Register. It's a staple article. It has been in Orange County for six years, and will be here for another six years and longer, or as long as any publication is circulated. The older it gets, the bigger it gets and the more the people want it. That's why we are having this good-natured battle for ballots. So many people want the paper that they cannot be reached by an agent, and subscriptions by the hundreds are waiting all over the county for candidates to simply come and get them for the asking.

People seldom volunteer to buy anything, but when they are asked to purchase something that is the best and something that is a necessity they are ready buyers.

Candidates who are already in the race are finding out how easy it is to get subscriptions to the Register, and if you enter today we'll give you a receipt book and the next day you'll come back and tell the Contest Editor that it is just as easy to find subscriptions as told you in this issue.

Now, it just simply takes a few subscriptions to get up with the leaders and a hustling candidate can do as much in one or two days as a candidate who sits back and dreams of the future, can do in three weeks. Don't be misled by thinking that there are no energetic candidates in this merry race, but there are plenty of others in Orange County who believe they are just a little bit livelier, and there is always plenty of room for such new candidates and it doesn't matter a bit about your not starting in a week ago.

Just cut out the nomination blank, which gives you 2500 votes to start with. Perhaps the next day you will find a figure seven sticking right in front of that 2500 that you had the day you entered.

These are the big vote days. Three times as many votes are being given for One, Two and Five-Year New Subscriptions to the Evening Register, as were given during the first days of this contest. We are giving 9000 votes for Yearly, 24,000 votes for a Two-Years', and 75,000 votes for a Five-Years' New Subscription; and this offer will be greatly reduced after Saturday, Feb. 17.

Now, can't you see how easy it would be to climb to the top of the list, and during the days between now and Feb. 17, roll up a vote that would stagger your opponents. Get that nomination blank into the office quick, and the Contest Manager will see that you get started, with all the information he can give you, consistent with fairness to other candidates.

Only six weeks are left and at the end of that time one of the most beautiful cars ever turned out of a factory will be given away to someone, and it may as well be you.

Rev. J. F. New of Los Angeles, formerly of Boston, will lecture at the Grand Opera House on Feb. 13 on "The Religion of the Future." Rev. New is a man eighty years old, but is hale and hearty and wonderfully clear in his thinking powers and address from the rostrum.

He is the leader of what is known as the Newlife Science, and maintains a school in Los Angeles known as the Newlife Institute. Concerning him an eastern paper said:

"A physician in New York, (Dr. John Fair New) has recently become prominent on account of his public affirmation that he intends to live for several centuries, and that he believes that the art of so doing only needs to be understood in order to become more generally adopted."

"An American paper describes him as not looking more than 30, and he boldly declares that he has worked laid out for 500 years ahead, and that he intends to live this extent of time without sickness or pain."

TELEPHONING TO LONDON FROM NEW YORK IS POSSIBLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—"Telephoning from New York to London is entirely practicable," declared Prof. Idovsky Pupin of Columbia University yesterday when informed that a Boston inventor had discovered a new "repeater," which would make possible transatlantic telephoning.

"By means of the inductance coil method which I worked out and sold ten years ago to the Bell Telephone Company, the Western Electric Company and the Siemens Bros. of Berlin, Germany, a London-New York, or San Francisco-Honolulu, or Honolulu-Manila telephone awaits merely the commercial need for it," said Professor Pupin.

"Present telegraph cables probably could not be used. So the only difficulty in transoceanic telephony is one of capital to assure itself of a recompensing demand."

Prof. Pupin's invention for which the Bell company alone paid him $200,000 flat and a royalty of $7500 a year during the life of the patent, is simplicity itself. It consists of coils of wire, similar to ordinary induction coils, placed at intervals along the

Spring Suits Here

Advance Showing of New Spring Models to Give You An Idea of What Is Correct

The first shipments of Spring Suits are here. We had them sent in by express in order to give you an idea of what is correct for spring wear and to afford you the privilege of inspecting these handsome new models. The new styles are different in many points. Although tailored lines are still in order, some of the models show a tendency to trimming—there are bits of color here and there to brighten things up, fancy buttons, a satin trimmed lapel, braiding on the coat and skirt. Altogether, they are more cheerful than what we have been having.

The coats this year are still short, 26 to 28 inches. They are cut in jaunty effects, one, two or three button models, straight or cut-away fronts. Some have shawl collars, some tailored. Many of the handsomest models have satin trimmed lapels. The cuffs generally are plain. The general lines are strictly tailored.

The new skirts are of medium width, cut with the high waist line or band. The fronts are generally cut with a wide straight gore, pleated at the sides. The backs still show the paneled effects.

Correct colorings for Spring include tans, grays, navy and cream. These colorings are strikingly handsome in the new materials such as whip cords, flannels, serges, and soft mixtures.

Improvements are constantly being made in cut, fit and finish; each year brings out some finer points of construction. These new garments are as elegantly tailored as any we have ever seen; and we can recommend them to the most particular.

"LAKME" TOMORROW EVE

Paris Grand Opera Will Produce Beautiful Story—Affair to be Social Event

Through the public spirit of Manager Uim and the music lovers of this city, Santa Ana is to have a presentation of "Lakme" tomorrow night by the Paris Opera Company which has been singing at the Auditorium for a fortnight or more. A synopsis of the play is given elsewhere in the Register.

The curtain will rise on "Lakme" tomorrow night, promptly at 8:15. A good house is anticipated and the seats are selling briskly, although good seats are still to be had.

Many theater parties are being planned to see this opera, and among them are:

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Burlew, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Bisbie, Prof. J. A. Cranston and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. I. Clark, Miss Ruth Deardorff, Miss Etta Deardorff and Miss Alice Nuffer, Mr. and Mrs. George Edgar, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. French and Miss Ethel French, Dr. and Mrs. Flood, C. A. Piano Recital

In a recital given on last Saturday afternoon by the piano pupils of Mrs. A. J. Padgham, Miss Smiley was appointed as hostess, and Miss Margaret Tingley wrote a paper on the life of Mozart. Both duties were admirably discharged.

Other members of the class who participated in the recital, which was of sufficiently high caliber to have been given before a large audience, were Mildred Marchant, Ruth Andrews, Roberta Dawes, Corinne Burns and Gertrude Utt.

Mrs. James S. Rice was a guest of the class and delighted with a pleasing rendition of "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes." Mrs. Padgham also assisted in the program, playing Mozart's "Pastorale Variet."

Birt-Jenkins

This morning, in this city, Rev. Mr. Paul E. Wright, at the Christian church, spoke the wedding service for Mr. I. R. Birt, a well known realty operator of Los Angeles and Mrs. Etta Jenkins of Riverside. The groom is a cousin of our late fellow townsman, J. W. Birt, deceased, whose wife, Mrs. Ida C. Birt, has served Santa Ana citizens so faithfully as delivery clerk at the post office window for the past twenty years.

The bride demanded to be married in the prettiest city in Southern California, and as the groom knew of the many beauty spots of Santa Ana, he decided to bring her here, and the result seemed satisfactory. The happy couple left by auto for Riverside, where they will spend a few days, returning later to Los Angeles, where they will be at home to their friends at the Hotel Silver City, after February 10.

Grand opera for Santa Ana! Surely a convincing indication of our advancement along lines of art and culture. Opera is undoubtedly the noblest and most comprehensive form of musical composition and when we shall better learn to appreciate and understand it we shall demand it and be willing to make the necessary sacrifice to enjoy it.

Go to hear "Lakme" at the Grand tomorrow (Wednesday) evening, 504½ N. Main St. Main 214.

WEBSTER CLUB MEETS

Miss Davis Succeeds Miss Edith Everett as Coach—Membership Limit Reached

The Webster Club held its monthly afternoon meeting at the high school yesterday.

Miss Davis, who has taken Miss Everett's place as debating coach, entered the club and Miss Shatto of the faculty was also made an honorary member. Stewart Smith was elected to fill the vacancy in the vice presidency which office was formerly held by Robert Paine.

Mary Hallmark and Charles Swann were voted in as members of the club, its membership limit of forty now being reached.

The formal debate of the afternoon was, "Resolved, That Southern California should have a State University."

Edna McMurphy ably upheld the affirmative alone, as her colleague could not be present. Winifred Hubser and John Ball were on the negative, the decision of the judges being in favor of the negative.

Travel Club

The second section of the travel department of the Ebell Society had an extremely interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. P. L. Tople yesterday afternoon, completing the general study of England and taking up the special subject of London, the most populous city in the world.

Roll call was responded to with current events items. One of the interesting features of the study hour was the reading of a travel article from the Atchison Globe. It is expected that one of these articles will be made a part of the program of each of the regular meetings in the future.

Travelers, No. 1

The ladies of the Travelers' Club, Number One, of the Ebell, were the guests yesterday of Mrs. I. W. Van Cleave, at her pleasant home.

The study period was taken up with an interesting chapter on the oil wells in Russia, taken from the book of travels which the members are reading. An animated discussion of the Polytechnic high school site also enlisted the attention and interest of the ladies. Later a delicious luncheon was served by the hostess.

ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Golden Wedding and Fifteenth Anniversary Celebrated at Holbrook Home

A family gathering of more than usual importance was held yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Holbrook, 303 Orange avenue, the event being in honor of Mr. Holbrook's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Holbrook and celebrating their fifteenth wedding anniversary. A surprise dinner was planned for them and invitations extended to their relatives in the East as well as in California, and from the East many loving messages and letters were received.

The day also commemorated the fifteenth anniversary of Mr. Holbrook's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Holbrook. The out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Lescher, Miss Julia Lescher of Carpinteria, California; Mr. Earl L. Holbrook of San Diego, and Mr. R. S. Holbrook of Sioux City, Iowa.

The home friends included the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Holbrook, with their children; Misses Esther and Orpha Holbrook, Master Franklin Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Jared E. Holbrook.

The host and hostess prepared a beautifully appointed five-course dinner of roast turkey, cranberry sauce, vegetables, salad and fruit, the dessert course being of fruit cake and bride cake, nut ice cream in golden heart shapes, and coffee.

A color scheme of gold and white was carried out with the table decorations and throughout the parlors.

The afternoon was spent in reminiscences of other happy occasions, and at its close the guests took their leave with cordial wishes to both couples for many returns of the day.

MRS. MOORE MAY ESCAPE TELLING OF FATAL PISTOL DUEL

SAN MATEO, Cal., Feb. 6.—Unless Chauffeur Samuel Timothy, who shot and killed J. J. Moore when Moore was alleged to have found his wife automobiling with him, is tried for murder, Mrs. Moore will not take the stand and tell of the pistol duel resulting in her husband's death. This was settled at Timothy's preliminary hearing. Mrs. Moore's attorney presented a doctor's certificate that her health would not permit her attendance at court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 6.—The present Eugene Schmitz trial promises to be the shortest in the history of the San Francisco graft prosecution. Both counsel agree it will not last longer than three days after the jury has been empaneled.

Six permanent jurors already occupy the box. The defense has exercised five peremptories, and the prosecution but one.

HILL'S CORNER

We have been listening to the remarks directed to, or for, the man or men who propose to test the validity of the school bonds and the wisdom of the location of the "Poly High" and it seems to this corner that no harm has been done or can be done by asking the court to pass upon the whole matter.

It is very plain that if the school board has not obeyed the letter of the law in such cases provided the bonds could not and ought not to be sold and thus the whole matter is finished, while if the courts say everything is regular and legal the bonds will be sold and all questions settled even though the people do not approve the selection made.

Therefore this corner of the Kansas Tin Shop advises everybody to keep cool and await results.

JURY WAS UNABLE TO REACH VERDICT

Huntington Beach News: A motion by defendant's counsel, H. C. Head of Santa Ana, for a change of venue, in the case of the city of Huntington Beach against R. H. Winslow, was denied Tuesday morning by City Recorder J. W. Shirley and the case proceeded to trial. The city was represented by Assistant City Attorney D. G. Wettlin, assisted by B. E. Tarter of Santa Ana. The prosecution charged Winslow with a violation of a city ordinance in establishing and operating a water plant, at his home in the Vista Del Mar tract, for the purpose of supplying water to others than himself and family, without first obtaining a franchise from the city.

The selection of a jury was, as usual, a tiresome proceeding, but finally resulted in the choice of J. Dameron, S. A. Moore, E. A. Jacobson, R. A. Johnston, T. R. Canady, William Sells, David Brush and Eugene Davis, a panel of eight being accepted by both prosecution and defense.

At this point, Attorney Head moved that the case be dismissed because the facts alleged in the complaint did not constitute a public offense nor a sufficient cause of action. Recorder Shirley took the matter under advisement and court was adjourned until 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The motion to dismiss was overruled by Recorder Shirley at that time and the case went to trial. A number of witnesses, some of them apparently very unwilling ones, testified to the facts in the case, the trial being occasionally enlivened by sharp verbal encounters between the recorder and the attorney for the defense.

The chief interest of the trial centered in the testimony of the defendant, who swore that he knew nothing of the laying of the pipe connecting his plant with the residences of others, but admitted that the connection existed. He also swore that some part of his pipe had been taken by unknown persons and used in making the connection, and that he would have objected to this had he known it but did not afterwards object because he did not know who did it. The mystery of who laid the pipes will therefore probably remain unsolved, but it seems to be admitted that they have been laid in violation of a municipal ordinance which requires that a franchise from the city must first be obtained.

At 11 o'clock Wednesday evening the jury was discharged, having failed to agree.

ORANGE GIRLS WIN GAME BIG SCORE

Orange News: The Orange High girls' basketball team defeated the Indian girls of the Sherman Institute at Arlington Saturday by the one-sided score of 36 to 7. The Orange girls came into their own again, after having experienced a marked slump in the last two games, and ran up a score on the Indian team. Incidentally they took their eleventh straight game of the season and gained a flying start for the coming championship game with Long Beach.

The game was played on a court where the sun beat down full upon the players, who were annoyed by the intense heat. The girls were very tired at the conclusion of the game.

A number of her friends surprised Mrs. Fred Truempler Friday afternoon at her home on North Pixley street, in honor of her birthday, remembering the occasion with the gift of a beautiful set of chinaware. The afternoon was spent in singing old songs and several recitations were given by Mrs. Fred Truempler and Mr. Uhlenhaut.

Refreshments of coffee-cake of many varieties were served. Those present were: Mesdames John Heinik, Virchem, Lau, Bortz, Hugo Truempler, J. F. Truempler, Hinrichs, Jackson, Schubert, Cody, Mack, Graber, Beck, Hettig, Eichen, Blank and Fred Truempler, Mr. Uhlenhaut.

The Senior class of 1912 of the high school is now organized with a total membership of 26. The first meeting of the year was held Friday evening and the officers were chosen as follows: Mr. Lew Wallace, president; Miss Ella Elson, vice president; Miss Evangeline Hull, treasurer; Mr. Otis Briggs, secretary; Miss Ella Sutton, corresponding secretary; Mr. Arthur Shipke, sergeant-at-arms.

It is believed that the class will be better able to perform the duties that come before every senior class. If it is organized as a single body, working together for the remainder of the school year.

Mrs. George Dierker entertained for her sister, Mrs. William Leseburg, Friday afternoon at her home on North Tustin street. About a dozen ladies, bringing their fancy work, spent a pleasant afternoon together. The beautiful new Dierker home was decorated in the color scheme of red and green, forming a most attractive appearance.

A three-course dinner was served at 5:30 by the hostess, the following guests finding seats: Mrs. William Leseburg, Mrs. Ed Dierker, Mrs. Ben Dierker, Mrs. Fred Bandick, Mrs. Henry Bandick, Mrs. Carl G. Jone, Mrs. Alfred Huhn, Mrs. J. H. Wilke, Mrs. Julius Borchard, Misses Mamie Dierker, Mathilda Dierker and Margaret Holsten.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET

Nothing in the way of features came to the surface in the deciduous fruit market. The demand was of limited volume and in the absence of liberal offerings, prices showed no quotable change. Apples were at last quoted with the market reported firm at the appearing prices. Holdings in storage are sufficiently large to care for any increased demand for some time to come. The same condition exists in the market for winter pears, dealers just withdrawing enough stock from icehouses to meet immediate wants. There was a brisk demand for green vegetables. Wax and green beans were more abundant, but prices for choice stock were firm at 20 cents per pound. Bell peppers received from Mexico continued to command top prices. Egg plant of good quality were scarce and the price remained unchanged.

Field grown asparagus continued to dribble in from Sacramento river points, with some especially choice stock selling at 75 cents per pound. The egg market showed an advance of 4 cents on fresh stock. Canned selects sold at 34 cents, case counts at 30 cents and pullets went to 25 cents per dozen. The advance was due to the bare local market. There has been an average of about one carload of eggs being shipped to eastern points during the past week, and the daily receipts by rail have been around the 400 mark with some deliveries by wagon. Some case counts sold yesterday in a jobbing at 28 cents per dozen. The market was reported firm at the revised figures. Storage stock was held at 25 cents, receipts were 340 cases.

There was no change in the butter situation, either in quotations or market conditions. Receipts were fairly heavy, although not heavy enough to weaken the market, and indications are that there will be any immediate change either up or down. The shortage of feed in this section will probably keep quotations at about the present level until there is a good rainfall. Arrivals were 38,911 pounds.

The cheese market was unchanged over Saturday. There was a good outlet for most varieties at quoted figures. Northern fresh was the best seller at 18 1/2 cents per pound. Receipts were 300 pounds.

Potatoes met with a steady sale at the old range of values and the market continued in fair shape for the selling element. Reports from outside points state that few spuds are in the hands of the growers, especially in the river district, and it is not improbable that a firmer market may appear shortly. Highlands sold at the outside figure of $2.05 a hundred-weight. Receipts were 5198 sacks.

The onion market firmed up to $3 over Saturday, due to no receipts having been reported in. This increase, however, was not looked for at this time. Plenty of stock is held in storage. Trading was rather quiet. Rains would increase the demand for this commodity.

No beans or sweet potatoes were reported in. In the former market Limas, which were inclined to be easy, have taken on a steady tone on account of the weather. Pinks were firm and advancing slowly. Small whites were firm.

H. R. Barcus Wants Raymond and Richey to pay Back
$600 and Interest

Suit for $658.70 was begun in the superior court today by H. R. Barcus, formerly of Santa Ana, against R. R. Raymond and G. D. Richey. The complaint states that in 1908 Barcus bought lot 17, block 24, New port beach, from S. P. Wright, and gave a $600 mortgage. He sold to Raymond, who agreed to pay the note. Raymond sold to Richey. Neither would pay it, and on November 24, 1911, to save his credit, Barcus met the note at the First National Bank. He now asks judgment against Raymond and Richey for the $600 note and $58.70 interest. Clyde Bishop is his attorney.

Road Petitions

The supervisors have received pe-

Farrar and others ask for a forty-foot road running from the center of section 27 to the center of section 22, township 5 south, range 11 west.

Do Not Like It

Thirty residents of a section recently taken from West Anaheim precinct and placed in Orangecorpe precinct have filed a protest against the change. They say it means four miles further for them to travel to a polling place.

Action Dismissed

Dismissal was entered today in the suit of the National Bank of Orange against W. A. Zimmerman for $1675. Suit was begun by reason of a misunderstanding of attorneys, for the suit was never presented to Zimmerman for collection.

LA FOLLETTE OR LATTER WILL STAY IN THE RACE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Unless Theodore Roosevelt publicly espouses progressive principles in a satisfactory manner, Senator La Follette will enter the Chicago convention to fight for the Republican Presidential nomination.

This is the attitude that Senator La Follette expressed following the demand of his chief supporters that he withdraw.

Progressive leaders are apparently trying to bring about a correspondence between La Follette and Roosevelt with this end in view. They hope to make Roosevelt declare himself, and assure La Follette that their fundamental beliefs are the same. They would also use Roosevelt's statement, if forthcoming, against President Taft.

ALL STOMACH
MISERY ENDED

No Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn
or Dyspepsia Five Minutes Later

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from Indigestion, Dyspepsia or out-of-order Stomach is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking some Diapiesin.

If your Stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a re-enforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak Stomachs should take a little Diapiesin occasionally, and there will be no more Indigestion, no feeling of a lump of lead in the stomach, no heartburn, Sour risings, Gas on Stomach or Belching of undigested food, Headaches, Dizziness or Sick Stomach, and, besides, what you eat will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors. All these symptoms resulting from a sour, out-of-order stomach and dyspepsia are generally relieved in five minutes after taking a little Diapiesin.

Go to your druggist and get a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin now, and you will always go to the table with a hearty appetite, and what you eat will taste good, because your stomach and intestines will be clean and fresh, and you will know there are not going to be any more bad nights and miserable days for you. They freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

HARRY BLEE FINDS OCEANSIDE
OFFICER GUIDING CHINAMAN

Los Angeles Examiner: Through the arrest Saturday night of a Chinese coolie and his confession yesterday to Chief Immigration Inspector Charles T. Connell, the immigration officials believe they have discovered an extended Chinese smuggling organization which has operated successfully along the Southern California Coast for months.

The Chinese was arrested in the Los Angeles Chinatown Saturday night by Immigration Inspector Bledsoe of Santa Ana. The American guide of the coolie escaped. He is known, however, as a peace officer of Oceanside, and his apprehension is said to be only a matter of a few hours.

Blee, when making an inspection of the train coming from San Diego, noticed the Chinese, became suspicious, remained on the train and followed the Chinese as he left it. No sooner had the Oriental landed here than a white man motioned for him to follow. Blee brought up the rear. The guide led the Chinese into the heart of Chinatown. On the way the Chinese noted the presence of the officer. The guide apparently had some difficulty in locating the "cache" of the organization here. Seeing a dark alley, the coolie made a dash for liberty. Blee rushed after him and placed him under arrest. Meantime, the guide disappeared.

The coolie confessed yesterday to Inspector Connell that his ticket for Los Angeles had been purchased at Oceanside by a Chinese merchant, Sam Wing, once convicted in the local Federal courts for opium smuggling. He described his journey by water from Ensenada to Oceanside and the launch upon which the trip was made.

The confession of the Chinese confirmed data already in possession of Chief Inspector Connell as to a smuggling organization operating between Ensenada and Oceanside, using a swift power schooner. The matter will be taken before the federal grand jury at its next meeting, and arrests are expected within a few days.

Story of Romantic
Opera, "Lakme," to Be Here Tomorrow Night

The romantic opera, "Lakme," which appears at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night, was written in 1780. It was first performed in this country by the American Opera Company in 1886. Mme. L'Allemand taking the title role. The principal characters are Lakme, daughter of Nilakantha, an Indian priest; Gerald and Frederick, officers of the British army; Ellen and Rose, daughters of the Viceroy, and Mrs. Benson, governess. The scene is laid in India. Nilakantha cherishes a hatred of all foreigners.

The two English officers, Gerald and Frederick, accompanied by a bevy of ladies, intrude upon the sacred grounds. They stroll about and gradually retire, but Gerald remains to sketch some jewels, which Lakme has left upon the shrine while she goes flower gathering with her slave Milika, and evidently also to watch developments when she returns. Lakme soon approaches in her boat, and there is a desperate case of love at first sight. Their demonstrations of affection are interrupted by the appearance of the priest, whose anger Gerald escapes by fleeing, under cover of a convenient thunderstorm. In the next act Lakme and her father appear in the public market-place, disguised as penitents. He compels her to sing, hoping that her face and voice will induce her lover to disclose himself. The ruse proves successful. Nilakantha awaits his opportunity, and stealing upon his enemy stabs him in the back and makes good his escape.

In the third act we find Gerald in a delightful jungle, where Lakme has in some manner managed to conceal him, and where she is carefully nursing him with the hope of permanently retaining his love. She saves his life; but just at this juncture, and while she is absent to obtain a draught of water, which, according to the Indian legend, will make earthly love eternal, Gerald hears the music of his regiment, and Frederick appears and urges him back to duty. His allegiance to his queen, and possibly the remembrance of his engagement to a young English girl, prove stronger than his love for Lakme. The latter returns, discovers his faithlessness, gathers some poisonous flowers, whose juice she drinks, and dies in Gerald's arms just as the furious father appears. As one victim is sufficient to appease the anger of Nilakantha's gods, Gerald is allowed to go unharmed.

The first act opens with a chorus of Hindoos, oriental in its character, followed by a duet between Lakme and her father; the scene closing with a sacred chant. The Hindoos gone, there is a charming oriental duet ("Neath yon dome where jasmines with the roses are blooming") between Lakme and her slave, which
